Travel for any member or any staff member shall be paid only upon the prior authorization of the chairman. Travel may be authorized by the chairman for any member and any staff member in connection with the attendance of hearings conducted by the committee and meetings, conferences, and investigations which involve activities or subject matter under the general jurisdiction of the committee. RULE NO. 12

POWERS AND DUTIES OF SUBUNITS OF THE COMMITTEE

The chairman of the committee is authorized to establish appropriately named subunits, such as task forces, composed of members of the committee, for any purpose, measure or matter; one member of each such subunit shall be designated chairman of the subunit by the chairman of the committee. All such subunits shall be considered ad hoc subcommittees of the committee. The rules of the committee shall be the rules of any subunit of the committee, so far as applicable, or as otherwise directed by the chairman of the committee. Each subunit of the committee is authorized to meet, hold hearings, receive evidence, and to require, by subpoena or otherwise, the attendance and testimony of such witnesses and the production of such books, records, correspondence, memorandums, papers, and documents, as it deems necessary, and to report to the full committee on all measures or matters for which it was created. Chairman of subunits of the committee shall set meeting dates with the approval of the chairman of the full committee, with a view toward avoiding simultaneous scheduling of committee and subunit meetings or hearings wherever possible. It shall be the practice of the committee that meetings of subunits not be scheduled to occur simultaneously with meetings of the full committee. In order to ensure orderly and fair assignment of hearing and meeting rooms, hearings and meetings should be arranged in advance with the chairman through the clerk of the committee.

THE DISMANTLING OF EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Illinois [Mr. DAVIS] is recognized for 5 minutes.

Mr. DAVIS of Illinois. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to express my extreme disappointment with the Supreme Court's ruling yesterday that allows the ban on affirmative action in California to stand. The Supreme Court's decision yesterday is consistent with its trend to reverse the gains of African-Americans, women, and minorities in this country. The Court's unwillingness to take this case and decide it on the merits will spur an all-out frontal attack on initiatives that seek to ensure that minorities receive equal opportunity and fairness in contracting, higher education, employment, and many other areas.

Campaigns to eliminate preferences based on race and sex are under way in several States. Today voters in Houston, the Nation's fourth largest city, had an initiative on the ballot to end affirmative action in the area of public contracts. Perhaps W.E.B. Dubois was right when he said that the problem of the 21st century will be the problem of the color line.

Proponents of dismantling affirmative action have argued that discrimination and isolation are no longer barriers to achievement. However, the statistics bear out a different result. The U.S. Department of Labor's Glass Ceiling Commission report, released March 16, 1995, shows that while white men are only 43 percent of the Fortune 2,000 work force, they hold 95 percent of the senior management jobs. In addition, this report revealed that women are only 8.6 percent of engineers, less than 1 percent of carpenters, 23 percent of practicing attorneys, 16 percent of police, and 3.7 percent of firefighters.

Women and minorities are 66 percent of the population in this country, but only 35 percent of physicians, 20 percent of tenured professors, and 6 percent of school superintendents. Minority enrollments in law school and other graduate programs are plummeting for the first time in decades. Women make up 80 percent of the health service professionals, but white males dominate the senior management positions. It is plain that America is still a society where race and sex play major roles in how far you can go.

The concept of affirmative action encompasses three fundamental principles of fairness: First, ensuring that every American has access to education; second, ensuring that every American has access to good jobs; and the third basic principle of affirmative action for which there can be no retreat is ensuring that every American
